- 15.2. Notice period and/or payment thereof can be waived off at the discretion of CEO.
- 15.3. An Employee engaged on contract may terminate his contract with the ISMO by giving a notice or making the stipulated payment in lieu thereof as per the terms and conditions of the contract.
- 15.4. The Employee who tenders his/her resignation from the service continues to be in service until the resignation is accepted by the Competent Authority.
- 15.5. In case an Employee withdraws resignation before it is accepted by the appointing authority or in case an employee withdraws resignation after its acceptance but before it becomes effective, the Competent Authority at its sole discretion may allow the employee to withdraw resignation.
- 15.6. If an Employee who has provided any undertaking/surety/bond and intends to resign or leave the service, he/she shall have to fulfil/discharge the obligation and/or liability undertaken in such undertaking/surety/bond, as the case may be in addition to pay in lieu of the notice.
- 15.7. Settlement of the outstanding dues if any will only be made after acceptance and effectiveness of resignation of the employee.

CHAPTER-3HUMAN RESOURCE PLANNING

1. This chapter details the yearly procedure led by the HR function, where departmental heads meticulously outline anticipated human resource requirements. Starting from proposed organizational charts to justifications for position creation, witness the development of a thorough Annual HR Plan—a crucial element in the organization's strategic workforce management.
 - 1.1. The HR Function is responsible for the initiation of human resource planning process each year.
 - 1.2. ISMO shall follow a specific process for the preparation and approval of the Annual Human Resource Plan. Annually, by the end of February each year, Departmental Heads shall submit anticipated human resource requirements to HR&A Department in prescribed format along with below enclosures but not limited to:
 - i. Proposed Organizational charts.
 - ii. JD/ Role Clarification Document
 - iii. Key technical & soft skills requirements
 - iv. Justification for the number of positions to be created.
 - v. Proposed Hiring Timelines
 - vi. Positions proposed to be filled through Promotion/induction (Refer approved Promotion /Progression Grid)
 - 1.3. SMC shall deliberate and assess departmental requirements and modify plans, if necessary, to prepare consolidated Human Resource Plan.
 - 1.4. The Annual HR Plan will incorporate predefined percentages outlined in the Promotion/Progression Policy, delineating the allocation of positions through recruitment and internal promotion. This strategic approach ensures a balanced staffing mix and adherence to the established Promotion/Progression Policy.
 - 1.5. Subsequent to the codal formalities, the creation/abolition of positions will be administered as per below:

Authority Matrix for Creation/abolition/upgradation of Position of Regular Staff
Sr. #	Nature of Authority	Competent Authority	Monetary Limit

(ii)	Creation of Positions of Regular Staff with requisite Job Descriptions (Cadre G-1 to G-8)	Chief Executive Officer	Full Powers

- 1.6. The annual manpower requirement shall be presented to the HR, Legal and Nomination Committee & BOD as part of ISMO's overall annual budget plan.
- 1.7. Upon final approval of budget, HR Department will notify the final Annual HR Plan.
- 1.8. Any proposed modifications to the human resource requirements must be submitted to the HR department in a timely manner and in the prescribed format.

CHAPTER 4

RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

At ISMO, our unwavering commitment lies in enticing top-tier talent from the market. To ensure a recruitment process that is not only competitive but also characterized by transparency, we have diligently implemented precise procedures.

Appointments to various posts of the cadre shall be made by the Competent Authority as described in this HRP Manual. The appointments will generally be made at the minimum of the various pay scales. The Competent Authority may however grant advance increments on initial appointment to deserving candidates possessing additional qualification and/or relevant experience required for the job.

All appointments shall be made on the recommendation of the appropriate selection committee to be constituted by the Chief Executive Officer in accordance with such general and specific instructions as the HR, Legal & Nomination Committee of the Board may give from time to time.

It is imperative that individual having history of conviction for any criminal offense by court of law are not eligible for appointment in ISMO.

Extraordinary leave shall not be granted for more than thirty days during first five years of continuous service of an employee with ISMO and ninety days upon completion of each five years term of continuous service of such regular employee with ISMO. Such leave is not debited against the Leave Account. No Remuneration or any other benefit shall be admissible during such leave.

7. DISABILITY LEAVE:

- 7.1 A regular employee may be granted disability leave in case he is disabled by an injury or disease contracted in or in consequences of performance of his duty.
- 7.2 Such leave:
- a. shall not be debited to the leave account of the regular employee.
 - b. shall be granted on production of a medical certificate signed or countersigned by the authorized medical attendant; and
 - c. shall not exceed a period of one year unless required otherwise on medical advice duly verified by the authorized medical attendant.
- 7.3 The leave salary during disability leave shall be equal to full pay for the first one hundred and eighty days and on half pay of the remaining period.

8. MATERNITY LEAVE & PATERNITY:

ISMO recognizes the invaluable role of employees in building a strong workforce and acknowledges the importance of supporting individuals during significant life events such as the birth of child. In alignment with the commitment to fostering a supportive work environment, ISMO offer comprehensive Maternity and Paternity Leave benefits to eligible employees. These provisions aim to facilitate a smooth transition into parenthood while ensuring the well-being of both our employees and their growing families.

- 8.1 Maternity leave shall in the prescribed manner be granted on full pay outside the leave account to a female employee on her option to the extent of one hundred and eighty days on first birth, one hundred and twenty days on second birth and ninety days on third birth from the date of commencement thereof.
- 8.2 Such leave may not be granted for more than three times in the entire service of a female Employee except when such leave is granted within her leave account due and admissible to her or as an extra ordinary leave without pay.
- 8.3 For confinements beyond the third one, the female Employee would have to take leave from her normal leave account.
- 8.4 The spells of maternity leave availed of prior to the coming into force of these rules shall be deemed to have been taken under these rules.
- 8.5 Maternity leave may be granted in continuation of, or in combination with, any other kind of leave including extraordinary leave as may be due and admissible to a female Employee.

- 8.6 Paternity leave: A male employee expecting his wife to give birth to a child shall, at his option, be granted paternity leave on full pay not exceeding thirty days outside his leave account from the date of its commencement.
- 8.7 Such paternity leave may not be granted for more than three times in the entire service of the male employee except when such leave is granted within his leave account due and admissible to him or as an extra ordinary leave without pay.

9. MEDICAL LEAVE:

Medical leave may be granted to an employee in the following manner:

- 9.1 Leave on full pay as medical leave for a period not exceeding 120 days at a time, may be allowed to an employee on production of a medical certificate signed or countersigned by the medical attendant authorized by ISMO for the purpose and also by the patient (employee) himself/herself stating that the employee was under Indoor Treatment during the relevant period.
- 9.2 Medical leave exceeding 120 days shall be treated as leave without pay.
- 9.3 The employee returning to duty after availing of such leave shall produce a fitness certificate signed or countersigned by authorized medical attendant.
- 9.4 Medical certificate and fitness certificate produced by the employee in support of his/her ailment must bear the signature of the patient (employee).
- 9.5 Medical leave shall not normally be refused to an employee. However, the Competent Authority may refer the employee to another authorized medical doctor/board as the case may be for a second opinion.

10. IDDAT LEAVE:

- 10.1. A female Employee, on the death of her husband, may be granted special leave on full pay, when applied for a period not exceeding one hundred and thirty days.
- 10.2. Such leave shall not be debited to her leave account.
- 10.3. Such leave shall commence from the date of death of her husband and for this purpose she will have to produce death certificate issued by the competent authority either along with her application for special leave or, if that is not possible, the said certificate may be furnished to the leave sanctioning authority separately.

11. LEAVE EX-PAKISTAN:

- 11.1 Leave ex-Pakistan may be granted on full pay to a regular Employee who applies for such leave or who proceeds abroad during leave or takes leave while posted abroad or is otherwise on duty abroad and makes a specific request to that effect.

- 11.2 Leave ex-Pakistan will be debited against casual or earned leave accounts. If there is insufficient credit in the leave accounts, the leave may be treated as extraordinary leave without pay.

12. Haj Leave:

- 12.1 The Competent Authority may grant special leave for thirty (30) days on full pay to an employee once within entire service period for the purpose of performance of Haj.
- 12.2 The employees with minimum three years of service are eligible to apply for Haj leave.

This leave shall not be debited against any other leave entitlement of the employee.

13. Rest & Recreation Leave(R&R)

Rest & Recreation Leave shall be admissible to the employees for 15 days against the deduction of 10 casual leaves. The leave shall lapse on 30th June of each year; the Competent Authority may relax this condition in case an employee is not allowed to proceed on such leave due to the nature of work or urgent assignments.

14. Bereavement Leave:

Employees can have Bereavement leave in the event of a death of parent, siblings, and children (own or spouse). Depending on the relation of employee and the deceased person, employee will be entitled for bereavement leave of 3 working days any one time. Any other leave type may also be availed in continuation of bereavement leave.

15. Return To Duty Before Expiry Of Leave:

An employee on leave may be required by the Competent Authority to resume duty or return to duty before expiry of the period of leave granted to him due to exigencies of work of the ISMO.

16. Recall From Leave:

If an employee is compulsory recalled terminating his leave and resume duty due to exigencies of the work of the ISMO, the employee shall be entitled to single return air fare plus allowance as admissible to him on tour, from station where the employee is spending his leave to the place of duty as indicated in his leave application, with the approval of the Competent Authority.

17. Overstay After Sanctioned Leave:

Unless the leave of ISMO employee is extended by the Competent Authority, a ISMO employee who remains absent after the end of his leave shall not be entitled to any remuneration of the period of such absence, and without prejudice to any disciplinary action that may be taken against him.

18. COMBINATION OF DIFFERENT TYPES OF LEAVE:

One type of leave may be combined with any other type of leave otherwise admissible to the ISMO employee.

19. EMPLOYMENT DURING LEAVE:

An employee of ISMO on leave shall not accept any employment, except in the case of availing earned leave accrued immediately before retirement and except with the prior approval of the CEO.

CHAPTER-13
